

VACANCY ANNOUNCEMENT

BURMESE LANGUAGE INSTRUCTOR POSITION

OPENING DATE: February 4, 2011
CLOSING DATE: February 18, 2011
WORK HOUR: Part-time; Approximately 20 hours/week
SALARY: $10 / hour
LENGTH OF HIRE: One year (subject to renewal)

MAJOR DUTIES:

The U.S. Embassy Rangoon is seeking a Burmese language instructor to teach beginner, intermediate, and advanced classes in speaking and reading Burmese. Classes include both group and one-on-one instruction, and students have varying levels of Burmese proficiency. Commercial textbooks and other teaching materials are provided, but the instructor is expected to develop a course curriculum for each level, and provide supplementary materials as needed. The instructor may also be required to lead classes on short day-trips around Rangoon, such as visiting a market, tea shop, or museum.

QUALIFICATION REQUIRED:

Applicants should have a Bachelor's degree or above, preferably in Education or Burmese, and/or at least 3 years experience teaching Burmese as a foreign language. Applicants must be fluent in Burmese and have a working proficiency in English (speaking/reading).

HOW TO APPLY:

Interested candidates should submit cover letter and CV to:
